

State Guard at Little Rock Cost $1.7 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Military District Headquarters here has announced that members of the state National Guard defederalized late in October received a total of $1,754,681 in pay and allowances while on active duty.

The period covered by the figure was approximately one month. Arkansas guardsmen were ordered to active duty by President Eisenhower Sept. 24 in connection with the integration crisis at Little Rock. About 8,500 guardsmen were released late last month and some 1,800 were kept in federal service.

The Army has announced another cut in the near future which will leave only 900 guardsmen on active duty.

Examples of monthly pay for guardsmen on active duty:

First Lieutenant, married, three years service including quarters and other allowances — $477.48.

Private, single, under two years service no allowance due — $86.00.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Army announced that approximately 275 troops of the 101st Airborne Division who have been on duty in the Little Rock integration controversy would be flown back to Ft. Campbell, Ky., today.

The troops were scheduled to begin enplaning at nearby Little Rock Air Force Base at 10 a. m. Two days ago the Army announced there would be a second reduction in the number of troops protecting nine Negro children in attendance at Central High School, but there was no definite announcement of when the cut would begin until today.

The Army said the 500 regulars who have been on duty would be reduced to 225 and that the number of federalized National Guardsmen would be reduced from 1,800 to about 600.

When President Eisenhower on Sept. 25 called out troops to enforce court-ordered integration here, 1,000 paratroopers were sent from Ft. Campbell and 10,500 guardsmen were federalized.

This total was first reduced by an Army order on Oct. 14.

Public Urged to Wear Poppy on Saturday

"Wear a poppy in memory of America's war dead!"

This will be the appeal of the women of the American Legion Auxiliary to everyone in Hope on Poppy day, Saturday, Nov. 9. They will be on the downtown streets throughout the day offering the little red flowers of memory to all who will wear them in tribute to those who died for America.

"We hope the whole city will join in a day of patriotic tribute to those who gave their lives that we might live in this great country of ours," said Mrs. C. E. Weaver, president of American Legion Auxiliary. "Wearing a poppy is a little thing to do but a thing big in meaning. That poppy over your heart means that you remember with gratitude those young men who died in our nation's defense on battlefields throughout the world."

"The poppies have been made by disabled Arkansas veterans in VA hospitals at North Little Rock and Fayetteville and the making of them provides months of beneficial and remunerative occupation for thousands of hospitalized veterans. While remembering the war dead we will ask the people of Hope to think also of the disabled war veterans and the children of the men who served. Poppy Day volunteers will carry coin boxes into which contributions for rehabilitation and child welfare work may be dropped. These contributions are a major source of support for the Auxiliary's continuous activities for disabled veterans and the needy children of veterans, most of the money being expended to help veterans and their families here in Hope and Hempstead County."

The world is not exactly full of people who get dizzy from doing too many good turns.

Youth Charged in Bank Robbery

SEARCY, (AP) — Baxter Hall, 34, and 15-year-old Robert Somnitz both of Panama City, Fla., have been charged with robbery in connection with the holdup of the Bank of Kennesaw at nearby Kennesaw.

Deputy Prosecutor Comer Bayett filed the charges in circuit court here late yesterday.

Circuit Judge Elmo Taylor fixed bond at $5,000 each, but Hall and Somnitz were unable to meet the bonds and were held in White County Jail.

The bank was robbed at pistol-point by a single man Wednesday afternoon. Hall and Somnitz were taken into custody shortly afterward near De Valls Bluff, about 20 miles from Kennesaw. Officers said Hall admitted taking the money.

State Police Capt. Alan R. Templeton said at Little Rock yesterday that $1,081 was discovered in an oil can in the trunk of an automobile in which the pair was riding when arrested.

Europe Will Accept Ike's Sharing Plan

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's call for creation of a NATO scientific committee to speed the sharing of knowledge among Allied nations seemed assured today of enthusiastic acceptance by the European allies.

The test of Eisenhower's leadership on this issue will come in persuading Congress to grant him the necessary authority to share secret atomic weapons information.

He is expected to face more opposition on the issue in Congress than at a December meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Paris. Eisenhower will head the U.S. delegation.

Eisenhower's main argument to congressional leaders was indicated last night in his broadcast speech on measures designed to recover for the United States the lead in missiles — era weapons which the Soviets demonstrated by their successful launching of earth satellites.

"In the free world," Eisenhower said, "we all have a lot to give and a lot to gain security through the pooling of scientific effort. Why should we deny to our friends information that we are sure the Soviets already have? Information our friends could use toward our mutual security."

"Why for want of the fullest practicable sharing, should we waste American research funds and talent struggling with technological problems already mastered by our friends?"

After All an Anniversary Is for Both Man and Wife

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — As any ordinary happy man does, I awoke as usual this morning with the usual pleasurable sensation that my wife was pouring champagne on my toes.

I awoke and discovered, as usual, that my wife was not pouring champagne on my toes.

"Do you know what day this is?" she asked.

"I thought I didn't really know what she had in mind. The trouble for her is that I did. As a matter of fact I had been brooding about it for 20 years."

"This, my dear, I assured her, 'was the day I destroyed you for ever. Just two decades ago, you were a waitress, bare-chested, working late, and I did the most cruel thing a man can do to an innocent girl with a purpose in this world—to take her away from her job.'"

"Well, you did," she said. "So I did," I answered. "And industry is the poorer, but I am the richer."

"Don't you think we should celebrate?"

"This is an occasion."

"Living with you, every day is an adventure. Being married to a Mau-Mau might offer the opportunity of an occasion. Being married to you every moment, even after 20 years, has its strange ness."

"Well, I didn't have to marry you. I could have married any number of men. And why I picked you I don't know. And who else could you have married any way?"

"A Mau-Mau."

"Which Mau-Mau?"

Problems Solved for Man Who Offered His Eyes to Pay a Debt, Keep Family Together

By BRYCE MILLEN

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — A panicky, jobless father threatened with jail if he didn't pay a $300 debt immediately has offered to sell his eyes to keep his family together.

But a television film and a newspaper story appeared today to have solved the problem for Mr. and Mrs. George Bruce King of Dardanelle and their two children. Job offers were reported flooding into Little Rock station KTHV, asking for King's address or that he contact them for a position in his field — service station work.

Last week the 34 year old King walked into the classified advertising offices of the Arkansas Democrat. He had less than $10 in his pocket. He laid down four one dollar bills and asked that this ad be inserted:

"MY EYES FOR SALE. One when wanted, the other upon death. Need money desperately. Lost job. Behind on bills. Two small children. Please write George B. King, Box 67, Rt. 1, Dardanelle, Ark."

It was no hoax. George King, ex-Navy gunner's mate first class who had fought his way through four major battles in the Pacific theater during World War II, was scared for the first time in his life.

King lost his job as service station manager in Sentinel, Ark., less than two months ago—a job he had worked at for nearly four years. His wife, Mary Geneva, 25, wanted to visit her folks in Arkansas so they packed their car and headed East.

They had a wreck and had to leave the car in El Paso, Tex. It was financed through a Phoenix Loan company.

Now, the company wants $532.17 balance on the car immediately.

"A man called my wife on the telephone the other night, and he was from the sheriff's office. He said, 'If we didn't pay up immediately, we would have you thrown in jail,' King said."

"I couldn't let them separate us from my kids. I had to raise the money somehow and I remembered a man that sold one of his eyes somewhere a few years ago to buy a new car."

"I figured that I could still work with one eye, and if I could get $1,000, it would pay for the bills and give us enough to live on until I could get work," King related.

His wife doesn't think too much of the idea. Her eyes flashed and she called him a "damn fool," but then smiled and said "But I love him for it."

"He'd do anything to keep the kids," she said.

U. S. Soon to Have Supply Super Fuel

By CHARLES WELSH

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A scientist revealed today that the United States soon will attain substantial production of boron-hydrogen high energy fuels, compounds which some experts suspect were the new type rocket power Soviet Russia says it used to fire Sputnik II into space.

"Project Zia" was the code name assigned to the research by the Navy in 1952. It has been classified as secret until very recently.

Pilot plant production of boron-hydrogen compounds has been under way for some time at the plant of Gallery Chemical Co. in Butler County 25 miles north of Pittsburgh, Dr. George F. Huff, the company's director of research, told a reporter. The output has been devoted to research.

A new four-million-dollar plant going into production next spring at Lawrenceburg, Ky., will produce "practical quantities," he said. Larger production will come from a 25-million-dollar plant scheduled to open at Muskogee, Okla., in January 1959.

Pupils Arrested in School Bomb Threat

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Spelling errors in a bomb-threat note to blow up Chester High School yesterday led to the arrest of two teenage pupils.

Teachers gave a spelling test to 1,000 male pupils to see which ones misspelled the five words misspelled in the note. Detectives said 70 boys misspelled the words. The list was cut to two by detectives John Taylor and Herbert Wright, who considered such other details as which boys had been wearing blue shirts and khaki trousers—as described by a secretary who saw the note pushed under a glass door.

The detectives said they found a typewriter on which the note was written in the home of Bradford Beckley, 17. He was charged with writing a threatening letter. Donald Fisher, 17, was charged with conspiracy.

108 Pullets Bring $247 to Club Youths

The 108 pullets exhibited in the second annual Sears-Roebuck Foundation sponsored poultry show, yesterday sold at auction for $247.80 which will be used toward the purchase of Hy-Line pullets for 4-H Club boys and girls in 1958.

State County Agent Oliver L. Adams said this morning.

In judging the show, Ruben Johnson, Extension poultry specialist, said the nine exhibits of 12 pullets each were the most uniform of any similar show that he had judged. Blue award ribbons were presented to Helen Self of Guernsey, Dwight Hampton of Hope, Ida Nell Engleland of Spring Hill, and Felix McClellan of Patmos. Red award ribbons went to Gilbert Brown of Spring Hill, Robert Earl Joy of Patmos, Jerry Wilson of McCusick, Gene Evans of Columbus and Vannor and Clinton Kidd of Spring Hill.

In the sale the 12 pullets entered by Helen Self were sold to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Brown, Sr., of Spring Hill, for $29.40. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McWilliams of Patmos road paid $28.80 for the 12 pullet entry of Dwight Hampton of Hope.

The totals for the sale, auctioneered by Claude Sutton of Sutton Livestock Commission Company, was achieved through the sale of 36 of the Hy-Line pullets to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, 42 pullets to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Brown, Sr., 12 pullets to Lester Kent of 29 road south, 12 pullets to C. E. Breed of Emmet and 6 pullets to Odell Luck of No. 4 road south.

Yesterday at 5 o'clock the boys and girls taking part in the poultry show and sale, with their parents, were guests of Corn Belt Hatchery to a Chick-N-Cook of barbecued broilers at the Egg Depot on the Rocky Mound road.

The Sears-Roebuck Foundation contributed $72 for cash awards to the exhibitors. The award money was paid on the basis of the blue and red ribbons received by the exhibitors. The blue ribbon exhibitors received $9.82 each and the red ribbon awards received $6.55 each.

The 4-H Club is very appreciative of all who assisted in making the second annual Sears sponsored 4-H Club poultry show and sale a success.

Salvation Army Drive Starts Monday

James H. Jones, chairman of the Hope Salvation Army Service Unit Committee, has announced that the 1957 campaign drive will start Monday, November 11.

A kickoff breakfast will be held at Hotel Barlow at 7 a. m. with all committee members and workers attending. Captain Sidney S. Lynch, divisional public relations director of New Orleans, will be the principal speaker.

This year's goal is $2,000 and in order that the service unit committee can meet the ever increasing demands made, this amount must be subscribed in full.

There will be two phases of the campaign, a solicitation of all business houses Monday, and later in the week house-to-house canvass.

This operation will be conducted by the women of Hope and will be directed by Mrs. Cline Franks.

The Hope Salvation Army Unit over the years has rendered a very effective and beneficial emergency welfare service to this community. It is designed to get to the point of need and meet it immediately without a lot of red tape.

The Salvation Army is proud of the men and women who over the years have given unselfishly of their time and energy so that the less fortunate might be given a helping hand.

Hope has always supported this drive generously and Mr. Jones calls on all citizens to again back the campaign. Your contributions will help others to a better way of life and will enable this Christian and charitable organization to continue its ever necessary service to man kind as in the past 93 years.

Mena Man Reports Seeing Satellite

MEANA (UP) — A Mena man reported sighting what he had several other persons believe was the second Soviet earth satellite last night.

Orrville Ogden, mechanical superintendent for the Mena Evening Star, said he sighted a bright light southwest of Mena at 7:20 p. m.

He said it appeared about as bright as an automobile headlight seen from two blocks away. Ogden said the object moved slowly from southwest to west, disappearing from view about 7:28 p. m.

"It was white and had no color," said Ogden.

Department Store Sales Decrease

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District last week were 8 per cent below sales in the corresponding week last year, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis said today.

Only the St. Louis area managed to hold its own in dollar volume, with sales being about the same as last year's figures.

The Little Rock area showed a 23 per cent decline in sales attributed to a new time for a seasonal promotion. Memphis was off 19 per cent and eight smaller district cities were down 13 per cent.

The bank said that in the four weeks ended last Saturday district sales averaged 2 per cent less than the corresponding month in 1956.

Cotton Forecast Shows Drop of 613,000 Bales

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department, in a semi-final report for the year, today estimated the cotton crop at 11,708,000 bales.

This figure is 613,000 bales less than the 12,401,000 bales the department forecast a month ago. It compares also with 13,130,000 bales produced last year and with 13,669,000 for the ten-year 1946-55 average.

The department also estimated that the yield of cotton would average 13 pounds on a harvested acre basis compared with 408 last year and 300 for the ten-year average.

This year's crop was grown under acreage planting restrictions and rigid marketing quotas designed to prevent overproduction. The department has proposed that next year's crop be grown under similar limitations.

In an accompanying report, the department said that 5,394,454 running bales of cotton from this year's crop were ginned prior to Nov. 1 compared with 9,718,48 to the corresponding date last year. The indicated average harvested acre yield and production, respectively, by state, included:

Missouri, 36 pounds per acre and production, 25,000 bales; Arkansas, 91 and 1,160,000.

Tornadoes Hit Sections of Three States

ORANGE, Tex., (AP) — Tornadoes swooping from rainy skies with a blasting roar dealt death and destruction in this Texas Gulf Coast industrial area last night. Collapsing homes crushed at least three persons to death.

Rescuers laboring in darkness amid fallen power lines carried 31 others to hospitals. Police estimated many more suffered lesser injuries.

Smaller twisters dipped during the night at Alexandria and scattered other points in Louisiana. Thirty persons were injured at Alexandria.

One tornado laid waste the Riverside district, a wartime housing project near the Sabine River on the east side of Orange. Witnesses said apparently a second funnel knifed into Groves, about 20 miles southwest. There was limited damage at Noma, China and Port Acres.

Disaster workers identified groves' entry.

New Civil Rights Commission Is Named by Ike

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's selection of the members of the new Civil Rights Commission opened the way today for an early start on its thorny task of seeking to prevent racial discrimination.

The difficulties confronting the six-member commission, provided for by the Civil Rights Act passed by Congress last August, have since been underscored by the inflamed feeling aroused by the school integration controversy in Little Rock.

Eisenhower, who only recently said he was having trouble finding men of the calibre and stature he wanted, announced the appointments late yesterday.

Retired Supreme Court Justice Stanley Reed was named chairman.

The appointments are subject to confirmation when Congress reconvenes. Meantime the members armed with power to subpoena witnesses, can swing into action as soon as they get organized.

Still to be named by Eisenhower, also subject to Senate confirmation, is a full-time staff director at $23,500 a year.

Reed, returning to Washington last night said he had no immediate plans for starting the commission's operations. As a justice, he joined in the Supreme Court's unanimous ruling in 1954 that racial segregation of public schools was unconstitutional.

Named as vice chairman was John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University and a former assistant secretary of defense.

Other members are John S. Bate, former governor of Virginia; J. Ernest Wilkins, a Negro and an assistant secretary of Labor; the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, president of the University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind.; and Robert G. Storey, dean of the law school at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tex.

The White House listed Reed, Bate and Storey as Democrats. Hannah and Wilkins as Republicans and Hesburgh as a political independent. The law requires that not more than three be from any one political party.

Reds Show No Sign of New Special Feat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 40th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution passed without any sign that the Russians had attempted any special new scientific feat to mark the occasion.

However, reports circulated in Moscow last night that the Russians may try to parachute back to earth the little dog, Laika, which since Sunday has been spinning around the earth in the second Soviet satellite.

Other reports reaching London today from usually reliable sources said Russia soon will fire aloft a third satellite twice as big as the half-ton Sputnik II and with another . . . live dog aboard. These reports said the third satellite will be aimed at penetrating farther into space than the two Sputniks now hurtling around the earth.

No Hope for Early End to L. R. Conflict

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Is there any hope of an early end to the federal-state conflict over integration at Central High School?

Signs are against it.

Although the Army has been sliding away at the number of troops assigned to enforce the court-ordered integration plan at Central High, there has been no word that all of the soldiers will be withdrawn.

Gov. Orval Faubus said yesterday that he knows of only one group which still is working on a solution to the integration dilemma.

This is a businessmen's committee which pledged itself to uphold law and order in the racial crisis. The 25 civic leaders comprising the committee have not yet made public any recommendation for a peace-making move.

However, Faubus said that when he last heard from the group, two weeks ago, "they were working on a proposal they thought might be helpful."

The governor gave no details about the proposal. But he indicated it would concern himself, the federal government, the Little Rock School Board and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Faubus said of the proposal: "It does have possibilities if it is still being considered."

The governor has said on several occasions that he thought withdrawal of the six Negro girls and three boys who attend Central High with about 2,000 white pupils would be the answer to the problem.

Federal paratroopers and federalized Arkansas National Guardsmen have guarded the high school since Sept. 25, two days after a mob rioted in protest of the Negroes' entry.

Ike Concedes Soviet Lead, Names Expediter

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says Russia quite likely leads America in some areas of missile development. He has appointed a scientist expeditor to the job of pushing this country ahead in this age of outer space weapons.

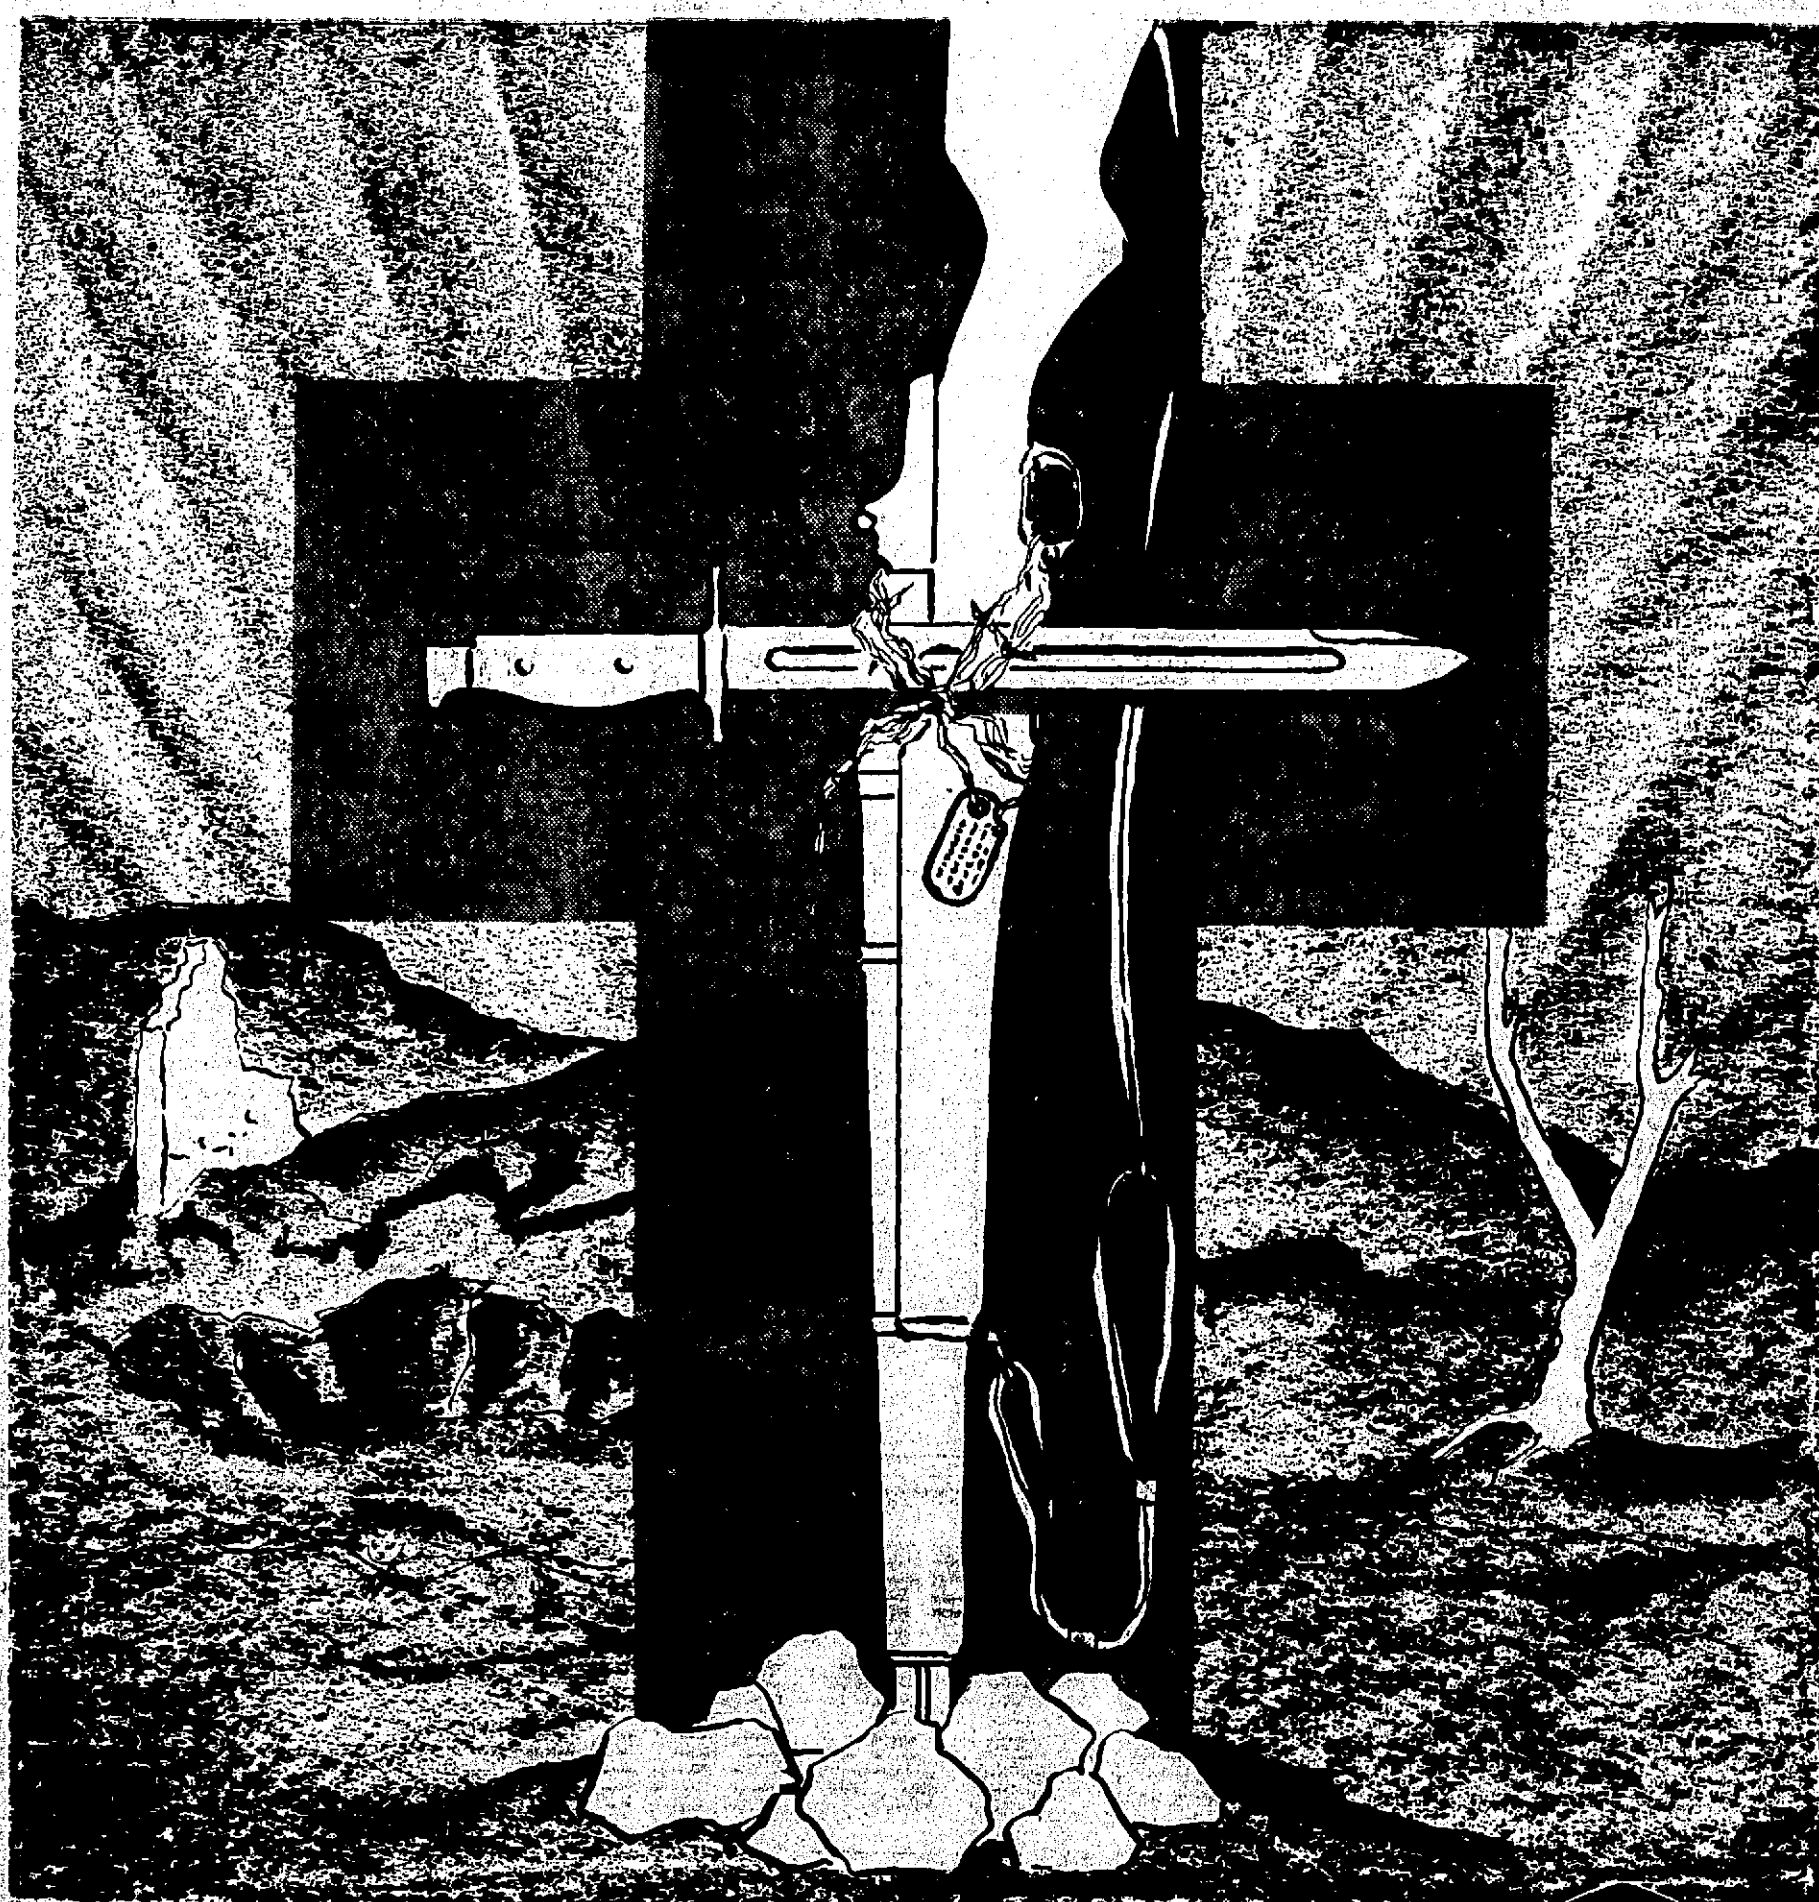

The President told the nation last night he is giving that big job to Dr. James R. Killian, 53, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. At the same time he said the Defense Department is strengthening the hand of its own missiles coordinator, William M. Holaday.

In a coast to coast television and radio address, Eisenhower said the Soviets not only are quite likely ahead in some missile and special weapons areas, but "are obviously ahead of us in satellite development."

"We frankly recognize," he added, "that the Soviets are building up types

Rice Going All Out to Best Porks

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Rice's Owls hope to get their high-geared offense rolling again tomorrow afternoon to stay in the Southwest Conference title race with a homecoming victory over the dangerous Arkansas Razorbacks.

A crowd of 40,000 is expected for a game that will be televised regionally, but with the Houston area blacked out.

Arkansas, whose 5-2 record does not reflect a brilliant showing last week against Texas A&M, the nation's No. 1 team, is rated a one-point favorite over a Rice outfit that will be trying for a comeback after successive losses to Texas and Clemson.

Another conference defeat would all but eliminate Rice from the championship chase. Arkansas, with losses to Texas and A&M, would retain only its slim mathematical chances of figuring in the championship.

Rice, with a 3-3 season record, enters the game with a big edge on offense but defensive averages leave the teams just about even.

Clemson gave up only 266 yards to the Owls last week and dropped Rice's per game average to 376.5 yards rushing and passing. The Razorbacks hold a 280.7-yard average. On defense, Arkansas has given up 260 yards per game, while Rice has allowed 280.

Both teams are in good physical condition. All the 14 Razorbacks who were ill early last week with influenza have recovered. Ronnie Kramer, the first string Rice center, is the only Owl on the injury list.

Coach Jess Neely indicated that if Kramer is not ready tomorrow the center spot will be shared by Jerry Graves of the second team and Don Gillis, a big right guard and linebacker who has been nursing injuries most of the season.

Rice has good reason also to fear the Arkansas quarterback, George Walker, who engineered Rice defeats in 1954 and 1955.

The Razorbacks were to fly into Houston today in time for a short workout in Rice Stadium.

Mitchell said yesterday that halfback Dinien Stone, a regular,
would probably miss the game with a back injury.

Mitchell said Greg Pinkston would start at right tackle as he did against Texas A&M when he was forced into first unit duty by the illness of Richard Bennett.
Bennett worked with the second unit this week and will operate with it against Rice.

Bobcats to Try for Two in Row Over Magnolia

The Bobcats will be out for a repeat performance of last year's 18-7 victory when they travel to Magnolia tonight. Last year the Cats defeated the Panthers in Hope on a rain soaked field. The Bobcats need this game if they are to stay contenders for the 4AA crown.

In 1950 Hope won 6-0, the next year the Panthers bounced back and beat the Bobcats 12-6. In 1952, the two teams tied, and in 1953, Magnolia came out on the winning side by a 46-0 margin. The Panthers barely edged out the Cats in 1954 with a 12-7 win. The following year the Panthers defeated the Bobcats 27-12.

Coach John Pierce told the press today that with the exception of Jimmy Chambliss and Jerry Franks, Hope is in good physical and mental shape.

Probable Starting Lineup:

Revision in State Cage Tournaments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas
will have three basketball tournaments for seniors and none for junior high teams this season as a result of action by the Arkansas Athletic Association yesterday.

Members of the AAA, meeting in Little Rock, voted to initiate a new tournament for Class AAA and AA schools while retaining the Class A and Class B tournaments.
All schools except those in Class
B once completed in the Class A tournament but last year the Big Eight (AAA) schools boycotted the meet with a resulting loss of fan interest.

It was not known immediately whether Big Eight schools would subscribe to the new plan under which the top four teams from the Big Eight and the top three clubs from each of the state's Class AA districts would compete in a 16-team tournament.

State level tournaments for junior high boys were wiped out by a tight 110-90 vote.

A move to combine the Class A and B girls tournaments into one meet was defeated as was a proposal to prohibit colleges from sponsoring invitational tournaments for high school teams.

The group decided to adopt regulations for college sponsored tournaments to assure that they would be controlled by high school athletic officials and that all profits would be divided among competing teams.

The association also approved a proposal to raise the enrollment figure for AAA classifications from 500 to 700. This move was made to prevent over crowding of Arkansas' only state-wide conference as several Class AA schools had reached or were approaching AAA enrollment.

A move to change the association's name to the Arkansas Artistic Association and to extend its scope into other extracurricular activities such as band, glee clubs and debating was tabled. A committee was appointed to study the proposal.

In other action the association:
— Set up three classifications:
AAA, AA and A — for tennis and golf.

Defeated a move to set up a state swimming meet for junior high boys.

Defeated a proposal that would have allowed teams to play on Sunday.

Approved a proposal to make football teams ineligible for district championships unless substitute games are played against a team of the same or higher classification. Teams are allowed to substitute games if they cannot schedule enough intradistrict games to qualify for the title.

May fifth with 514.

Tech's Joe Reese and Teachers' Wilburn Graham were one-two in passing the most, 17, but Reese led in yardage with 305, and 13 catches to Reese's 232 yards.

Meadors topped the scoring list with nine touchdowns for 54 points.
A&M fullback Alvin Ford held second place with six touchdowns for 36 points and teammates Woolsey and Hurley were tied for third with five touchdowns and 30 points each.

Reese was the conference's best punter with a 39.1 yard average for 37 kicks. Hoskyn has kicked

Hunting Conditions Likely to Improve

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hunting conditions were expected to improve today as Arkansas' open season on ducks, geese and other migratory waterfowl went into the second day.

The U.S. Weather Bureau forecast clearing skies and cooler weather for the weekend when hunters will turn out in force for the first time.

Underdogs on Spot Against the Favorites

By ED WILK
Of The Associated Press

This college football season, one of the best ever, now comes up with a weekend that plunks the underdogs on the spot along with the favorites. It's put up or shut up for most everybody.

The big games tomorrow are Texas A&M-SMU, Oklahoma-Missouri, Auburn - Mississippi State, Iowa-Minnesota, Ohio State - Purdue, Navy-Duke, Tennessee-Georgia Tech, Michigan State - Notre Dame and Oregon - Washington.
Just about all of them have a double angle.

Texas A&M, No. 1 again in The Associated Press poll, probably has had its scare for the year (last week's 7-6 decision at Arkansas) and is a two-TD favorite.
Southern Methodist, putting in a late bid for the Southwest Conference title and a bowl berth must knock off the Aggies to make the bid bud.

Oklahoma's sub-par Sooners, finding summer soldiers among the supporters who have beaten the drums through 46 consecutive victories, must win big against Missouri to retain their national prestige. Mizou, grown ambitious after winning four in a row, must knock off the Sooners to swipe
the Orange Bowl spot.

Auburn, giving Oklahoma a battle for second place in the poll, is at least a perfect season and the Southeastern Conference title.
But Mississippi State must look good in this one for any chance at a bowl shot.

Iowa, knocked out of the Big Ten lead by last week's tie with Michigan, is a touchdown favorite as the Hawkeyes eye a repeat crown although barred from a Rose Bowl repeat. Minnesota, twice beaten but still hopeful of the Rose Bowl bid since the Gophers play one more game than Ohio State and Michigan State, must win this one to stay alive.

Tennessee, a touchdown favorite, has lost only to Auburn but can't lose another and retain a crack at one of those bowl berths.
Georgia Tech, poking its nose in with last week's upset of Duke, must win the rest of the way for a seventh consecutive bowl appearance.

Michigan State, favored by two TDs, is working on a comeback up the top 10 list after that upset by Purdue three weeks ago. Notre Dame, knocked off by Navy last week and facing Oklahoma's next week, must win this one in its comeback try from last season's poor showing.

Ohio State can't afford to breathe easy against Purdue if the Buckeyes are to retain the Big Ten lead and an edge in the race to the Rose Bowl. Navy, with one eye on another bowl bid, proved it had the stuff against Duke's Blue Devils, who have the Atlantic Coast Conference bid to the Orange Bowl in the bag.

Oregon, having whipped the other eligibles, could clinch the Pacific Coast Conference's approval for the Rose Bowl by defeating Washington.

Six-Year-Old Undergoes Operation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 6-year-old girl was wheeled into an operating room at the Medical Center here for a critical heart operation today, three days after "Christmas."

Doctors said that complications have lowered the chances of successful surgery in the case of Deborah June Newman, a frail, blonde girl from Fort Smith, Ark.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Newman, gave her a surprise Christmas Party Monday.

Physicians said that Deborah is suffering from an ailment known as patent ductus arteriosus.

The ductus is a channel leading from the main artery on the left side of the heart to a pulmonary artery on the right side. The pulmonary artery is connected with the lung.

An unborn baby gets much of its blood supply through this ductus and usually, after birth, the channel seals automatically. When it remains open, surgery is employed to close it and patients usually recover.

Deborah's condition was made worse by a case of double pneumonia when she was only six months old.

Physicians said pressure within one of her lungs has built up until it almost equals that of the aorta

—one of the principal arteries. Danger occurs when the ductus is sealed. The heart must adjust to a new condition—and it sometimes fails to do so.

Deborah was carried on a pillow until she was a year old. She started walking at the age of three.

Doctors said that she would have lived only a few months if the operation were not performed.

Clay Zeringue, 82, and R. T. Smith, 70, both trapped as their homes fell apart at Groves.

Mrs. Annebell Peck, about 45, Negro expectant mother who was pinned beneath the wreckage of her two-story frame dwelling here.

Mrs. Zeringue, 87, was taken to a Port Arthur, Tex., hospital in critical condition.

"There was just a single explosion-whoomp, just like that — and then it was all over just in a matter of seconds," said Orange Police Chief Raymond Sanders.

"The lights went out, and then came this explosion. I went outside and it was rough. I don't know whether you would call it panic or not, but it was pretty bad with 4,000 to 5,000 people all trying to get out of their houses at the same time."

Orange authorities, making hasty estimates, said damage here may match this city's million-dollar loss inflicted last June 27 by Hurricane Audrey, which killed one person here.

Roofs were ripped off and walls collapsed in about 75 two-and three-unit apartment houses in the Riverside section. Police counted 100 to 125 homes damaged or demolished as the twister skipped across Orange from the northeast to southwest.

At Groves, a west wall of DeWitt Hospital was blown in. About 100 homes were heavily damaged. In Louisiana, a section of Alexandria four or five blocks square suffered heavy damage. Other tornadoes dancing across the state inflicted minor damage at Tensas, where four persons were injured, and at Evangeline, Andrews Cove, Filmore, Curtis and Le-compte-Cheneyville.

MacArthur Given a New Army Flag

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur has been presented with the new United States Army flag.

The flag, officially adopted by the Army last year, was presented to MacArthur yesterday by Secretary of the Army Bruce C. Clarke. Former President Herbert Hoover was a guest.

In accepting the flag on Governor's Island, MacArthur said: "In these twilight days, I shall wrap myself in its folds with a reverence and devotion which surpasses all understanding."

The flag has 145 battle streamers commemorating campaigns from Bunker's to Korea.

the alert for what some of them believed might be a new Russian space venture to dramatize the anniversary yesterday of the Bolshevik Revolution.

There had been some speculation the Russians might try to send a rocket to the moon.

In Cambridge, Mass., officials of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said last night they had received no word from any observers indicating any unusual activity on the moon yesterday. Dr. J. Allen Hynek, associate director, said there have been "rumors only" that the Russians would try to fire a rocket to the moon.

Moscow sources said the launching of a moon rocket was envisaged by the Soviets, but not in the immediate future. One informant said "we have the technical capability for launching such a rocket, but it is not part of our immediate program."

In London, Britain's chief atomic expert said last night it would give a push to Western collaboration if the Russians reach the moon on their next space expedition.

Sir John Cockcroft, director of the Harwell Atomic Research establishment, said "the shock of Sputnik has brought, particularly in the United States, a feeling for more collaboration in the Western world . . . I think what is now required is for the Russians to hit the moon with Sputnik III and this will help us very considerably."
